Summary

Panama's public services regulator ASEP has set up a temporary mobile office in Las Tablas, Los Santos, because its regional office was damaged in the 9 October earthquake. All other ASEP offices nationwide operate normally; the free line 183 and virtual assistant RINA (6271-2230) remain available.

Details (summary of the article)

ASEP has temporarily set up a Mobile Office in Las Tablas, Los Santos province, to bring its services closer to the public and handle complaints, queries and requests about regulated public services. The step was taken because of damage to its regional office infrastructure in that province during the earthquake of 9 October. The Mobile Office is at Plaza Praga, Calle Estudiante and Avenida Belisario Porras, serving users Monday to Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Residents can get guidance on electricity, telecommunications and drinking water services and on how to file claims with providers. ASEP's other offices and agencies nationwide continue operating normally. Information is also available via the free line 183 or the virtual assistant RINA at 6271-2230.
