FPI Fundación por la Inclusión / The Handicap Foundation invites the community to a special evening celebrating art and inclusion: Gallery Night at Bambuda Castle, by Boquete Wine Fest and Annie Chajin, Friday 30 October at 5:00 p.m., Bambuda Castle, Boquete. Tickets: <https://www.mieventos.com/event-detail/noches-de-galerias>. They will exhibit and sell a mural created by thirty people with disabilities guided by Belén, Mary Ellen Watts and Loesje Sonnemans — a collective mural inspired by Panama's flora and fauna, now divided into six fragments. One hundred percent of painting sales support programmes for people with disabilities in the community. Enjoy wine, art and community at Bambuda Castle. FPI supports people with disabilities in the Boquete District so they can access healthcare, education, food and recreation.
