Details (summary of the article)

Sixteen days after the magnitude 7.5 earthquake of 9 October, SINAPROC continues damage assessment, inter-institutional coordination and humanitarian assistance. Preliminary figures from the National Emergency Operations Centre: 13,985 homes assessed, covering 45,765 people, in ten provinces and the Ngäbe-Buglé comarca. More than 120 health centres and over 853 schools have been inspected. Twenty-seven people were injured; follow-up continues for pregnant women and people with disabilities. Logistics have moved more than 208,000 pounds of cargo by air and 376.6 tonnes by land. Lions Clubs assisted 1,800 families (about 9,000 people) in 96 communities of Los Santos, Herrera and Veraguas between 10 and 24 October, with 98 clubs taking part. The fire service increased its national force to 1,348 units in the last 72 hours. As of 20 October, MIDES counted 151 active shelters with about 5,067 people, mainly in Veraguas, Los Santos and Herrera. Yellow alerts remain in Tonosí district (Los Santos) and designated areas of Veraguas, with a preventive green alert in other provinces due to unstable weather.
