Summary

The Instituto de Mercadeo Agropecuario (IMA) will hold agro-fairs nationwide on Friday 30 October 2026 from 8:00 a.m.; the Chiriquí site is the community field of El Alba, David Este. Shoppers must bring their ID card and reusable bags.

Details (summary of the article)

IMA announced the locations for its agro-fairs on Friday 30 October 2026, offering basic-basket products at low prices. Sales start at 8:00 a.m. In Chiriquí the fair will be at the El Alba community field in David Este, David district. Other sites are in Darién (Cucunatí), Panamá Oeste (Las Huacas, Vacamonte), Veraguas (Santiago Mall parking), Comarca Ngäbe-Buglé (Soloy), Panamá Este (Majé, Tortí), and two in Panama City (Kuna Nega in Ancón and Don Bosco). IMA reminds buyers that the personal ID card is required and recommends bringing reusable bags. The institute also noted there will be no agro-fairs during the patriotic holidays in November, per announced closing dates. Reported by Telemetro.
