Summary

SINAPROC's National Emergency Operations Centre published its 30 October preliminary balance of the magnitude 7.5 earthquake of 9 October: 17,058 homes assessed, 55,245 people registered, two dead and 27 injured.

Details (summary of the article)

SINAPROC's national COE issued Official Report No. 26 on 30 October on the magnitude 7.5 quake of 9 October, centred 39 km northwest of Tonosí, Los Santos, at 4 km depth. Damage and needs assessments now cover 17,058 homes and 55,245 registered people nationwide. The preliminary toll stands at two dead and 27 injured; of 853 schools inspected, 619 show damage, and 120 health centres are affected. Among those needing priority care are 166 pregnant women and 2,244 people with disabilities. 135 shelters are open housing 4,428 people, and more than 208,317 pounds of aid have moved by air plus over 365 tonnes by land, with 175 communities assisted and 38 air evacuations. The foreign ministry has coordinated international donations from 9 to 29 October. Authorities stress the figures are preliminary and will be updated as field teams continue work.
