Summary

Dr. Luis Quintero has taken over as institutional medical director of the Caja de Seguro Social in Chiriquí, and Iraida Marcelino as provincial administration director.

Details (summary of the article)

The Caja de Seguro Social announced new leadership in Chiriquí province, as reported by the CSS press office. Dr. Luis Quintero has assumed the post of institutional medical director, responsible for coordinating and following up on the delivery of health services across the province. Iraida Marcelino joins as provincial director of administration and said the commitment is teamwork so patients receive services promptly. Chiriquí has ten health executing units which the new leadership says will be reinforced to improve and optimise care. The appointments are presented as a commitment to more timely service delivery in the province, which matters for Boquete residents using CSS clinics and the David hospital.
