Details (summary of the article)

Midiario reports that communities in the Nedrini region of Mironó district in the Ngäbe-Buglé comarca received two weeks of medical care, medicines, food and other aid in a humanitarian mission organized by the Ministry of Public Security (Minseg), Panama's security services and the Embassy of the Sovereign Order of Malta. The closing event took place at the Cerro Otoe school grounds in Hato Culantro, combining a health fair, donation hand-outs and activities for children, youth and adults. Officials counted 1,428 humanitarian aid boxes and roughly 2,000 meals distributed. The health fair provided general medicine, vaccination, nutrition, laboratory, gynaecology, dentistry and pharmacy services: 474 people were treated, 567 vaccinated, 1,284 medicines dispensed and six pregnant women attended. More than 1,400 students joined workshops on emotions, boundaries and indigenous identity, plus sports, films, haircuts and communal meals. Security Minister Frank Alexis Abrego attended the closing with Raúl Arias of the Order of Malta, and 469 young people enquired about recruitment into the National Police, Senafront, Senan and the migration service. It was the third such mission in Nedrini.
