Summary

The Embassy of Kosovo handed over rice, sugar and blankets to MIDES on 22 October for shelters housing people affected by the 9 October earthquake.

Details (summary of the article)

According to SINAPROC, the Embassy of Kosovo in Panama delivered a donation of 527 units of rice, 1,388 units of sugar and 327 blankets for shelters housing families displaced by the 9 October earthquake. The handover took place at the Regional Logistics Centre for Humanitarian Assistance (CLRAH), with Ambassador Enis Xhemaili giving the goods to MIDES adviser Gabriel Noriega. MIDES is coordinating all temporary shelters nationwide together with other institutions to avoid duplicated effort and ensure transparent distribution. CLRAH director Holda Álvarez de Marré said Kosovo was among the first countries to offer help after the quake. The Foreign Ministry's international cooperation director, Carlos Fitzgerald, thanked donors, noting the strong need for basic subsistence supplies.
