TVN Panamá video report on Panama presenting its coffee diversity — including Geisha and shade-grown coffee — to the world, a theme closely tied to Boquete's coffee sector.

Full text (English)

TVN Panamá published a video report on how Panama is showcasing the diversity of its coffee to an international audience, from the famed Geisha variety to shade-grown coffees. The story coincides with World of Coffee Panama 2026, where Chiriquí's highland coffees, many of them from Boquete, are in the spotlight. Boquete growers are among the best known producers of Geisha, which regularly fetches record auction prices. Shade-grown and specialty lots are also being promoted for their environmental and quality credentials. The report is a video item without further written detail.
