David authorities announced the official flag-bearer and speakers for the 2 and 3 November civic events, invited the public, and said police, Sinaproc, Red Cross and firefighters will reinforce security during the holidays.

Details (summary of the article)

TVN Panamá reports that authorities in David announced the leading figures for the coming patriotic festivities at a flag-planting ceremony. Professor Rafael Bolívar Aguilar will be the official speaker for the solemn acts of 2 November, while the central activities of 3 November will be headed by José Tribaldos as official flag-bearer, with student Carlos Díaz as speaker. The public has been openly invited to attend. Officials said around 60 permit procedures have been handled to support small businesses and street vendors who depend on the parades. Security and intelligence operations during the holidays in Chiriquí will be coordinated jointly by the Municipal Police, the Fuerza Pública and relief bodies including Sinaproc, the Red Cross and the Fire Brigade.
