Summary

Panama's Education Ministry (Meduca) announced it will rebuild 85 schools, with the minister aiming to have them ready for the start of the 2027 school year in March, as reported by TVN.

Full text (English)

TVN reports that Meduca plans to reconstruct 85 school buildings across the country, with the minister stating the goal is to finish them before classes begin in March 2027. The announcement follows damage and deterioration affecting many schools, an issue of particular interest in Chiriquí after the recent earthquake affected school infrastructure. No detailed list of the schools or budget figures was given in the video report. Parents in Boquete district should watch for Meduca announcements on which local schools are included and how classes will be arranged in the meantime.
