TVN reports that David held flag-raising ceremonies at the Chiriquí Governor's Office for the Day of National Symbols, with a parade in David on 4 November involving some 45 school delegations and seven independent bands.

Details (summary of the article)

According to TVN Panamá, ceremonies for the Day of National Symbols were held in David, Chiriquí, and in Antón, Coclé. In David the flag was raised and the national anthem sung at the Chiriquí Governor's Office, with communicator Dostin Guerra as keynote speaker and hoteliers Alejandro and José Taboada as flag bearers; Commerce and Industry Minister Julio Moltó attended. Eleven Chiriquí professionals in education, communication, culture, crafts and agriculture were honoured, including TVN journalist Darío Fernández Guerra. The celebration continues on Wednesday 4 November with the parade through David, with at least 45 school delegations, two guest schools and seven independent bands, running from Avenida Porras to the David municipal building. In Antón, civic acts and folk performances took place at Parque 15 de Enero. The report notes that in provinces hit by the 9 October earthquake parades were cancelled for safety reasons, and that commemorations continue on 5 November in Colón.
