Summary

At the Day of National Symbols civic acts in David on 4 November 2026, eleven Chiriquí citizens were honoured, including TVN journalist Darío Fernández Guerra.

Details (summary of the article)

TVN Panamá reports that eleven citizens were honoured during the Day of National Symbols civic ceremonies held in David on Wednesday 4 November 2026. Those recognised came from education, media, culture, handicrafts and agriculture, and included TVN Noticias journalist Darío Fernández Guerra, who began his career in Chiriquí and now coordinates the channel's correspondents. He used the occasion to urge Panamanians to keep supporting people affected by the 9 October earthquake in Chiriquí and Azuero. Communicator Dostin Guerra was the keynote speaker, and hotel businessmen Alejandro and José Taboada served as flag-bearers. The event formed part of Chiriquí's month-of-the-nation commemorations.
