Summary

A motorcycle pizza delivery rider was thrown onto the road after colliding with a car on 8th Avenue East in Valle de la Luna, Chiriquí, and was taken to hospital.

Details (summary of the article)

Mi Diario reports that a motorcycle pizza delivery rider was injured in a violent collision on Avenida 8ª Este in the Valle de la Luna sector of Chiriquí. The rider was making a delivery when a car, which reportedly ignored a stop sign, struck his motorcycle; the impact threw him onto the pavement, where he lay until emergency crews arrived. Firefighters attended and the rider was taken to a medical centre for evaluation. Traffic police secured the scene and are investigating responsibility. One of the vehicles was badly damaged and had to be towed away.
